BE IT KNOWN by this official document of the "Church of God," with headquarters at Jerusalem, Palestine; that Herbert H. Armstrong whose address is P.O. No. 4th St., Eugene, Ore. has been duly chosen according to the good hand of God to take part of the ministry and discipleship which the seventy noble disciples laid down in death as martyrs or otherwise.

With pleasure the Church endorses him as their duly qualified representative, and he is herein recommended as a man of the highest Christian character, worthy of your confidence and trust. By this document he is authorized to perform all the duties devolved upon the clergy and to share with the other seventy the spiritual duties devolved upon the ministry according to the gospel commission.

These credentials remain good so long as the life of the holder conforms to the standard set by Jesus and taught by the Church of God, in morals and doctrine. He herein agrees that in the event he is not able to see eye to eye with the Church in belief as well as to live according to the divine standard, that he will, without controversy or trouble of any kind, cheerfully return this epistle of commendation to the proper church authorities.

Signed:

J. M. Quinn
General Secretary

E. C. Wood
General Pastor
